TRI-COMMUNITY JUDICIAL DISTRICT IS SEEN

Salary Study Report Slated; Teachers Issue Statement

Citizens Committee To Hear Results Of Salary Survey Wednesday Night

Question of need for an increase in salaries of teachers in the Campbell Union Elementary School District will be given further discussion next Wednesday evening, April 11, when a special survey committee makes its findings known to the citizens group to investigate salary standards here.

A committee composed of James T. Barnett, Norman Liles, O. A. DiBenedetto and Mrs. Nancy Gorman has been given job of making the pay schedule study to determine state average salary for teachers and to determine whether an increase is needed and, if so, how the additional income shall be provided.

Citizens committee members, who held their first session on Wednesday evening of last week, represent local service organizations, women's clubs and PTA units.

Should the committee recommend an increase, it is probable that the board will recommend a boost in the district tax rate, now .90c per $100 of assessed valuation, to meet the additional salary payments. At the meeting last week, the group learned that a boost of .25c in the tax rate would create additional revenue amounting to about $30,000, sufficient to give each teacher an increase of about $300 per year.

Meanwhile, Campbell Teachers Association issued a statement today in which it attempted to explain need for the salary increase. The statement follows:

TEACHERS' STATEMENT

"After reading the report published in last week's Campbell Press summarizing the discussion at a meeting of the Citizens Committee appointed to study salaries of the elementary teachers of the Campbell Union School District, the members of the Campbell Teachers Association feel that certain points should be clarified.

"In the first place, regardless of pay averages arrived at by dividing the annual contract salary by weeks in the year, the average weekly take-home pay for the ninety teachers of the district is $48.37. Deductions for retirement and annuity, though they might be considered as future income, cannot be counted as income that can be used to meet living expenses. The deductions are not controlled by the individual teacher.

"Furthermore, lowest take-home pay goes down to $37.78, and only nine teachers of the district take home more than $55 per week.

"To meet the present rising cost of living, therefore, the average teacher must budget out of a $2500 salary.

COST OF LIVING
"The report mentioned that a $300 increase had been given in 1948. The increase, however, has been wiped out by rising living costs. Since June of last year alone rising prices have sliced $155 from the minimum salary.

"In 1946 when minimum salary was $2400, the cost of living index stood at 134. Most recent cost of living index for the San Francisco area is 191. This means that in order to have an income equal to the $2400 of 1946, the present minimum would have to be set at about $3400. Conversely, the present minimum would equal a 1946 salary of about $1900.

"It is true that there has been a rise in wages in many trades and professions in the last year or so, and in many cases, an actual rise in real income. Teachers, however, have suffered a 5.8% decrease in real income since June of last year. A recent survey made by United States News and World Digest lists them as suffering one of the greatest decreases, and next to the group at the extreme end of the list—holders of savings bonds.

"Other comparisons also show the financial difficulties of the teacher. We have said that the average take-home pay is about $2500. A 1949 survey by the publication "Sales Management" estimates the average family net effective buying income of San Jose at $4,476.

"The association also feels that comparison of salary schedules with other districts should show the local scale in a wider setting to give the complete picture. There are a few surrounding districts where salary scales are lower than ours. But there are many which pay higher. San Jose, Santa Clara, Palo Alto and Saratoga all pay at least $300 more, and are considering additional salary raises, because they do not feel that their salary schedules are yet adequate.

"We feel that these are some of the main points to be considered in any decision on whether a salary raise is justified. There are other more general considerations. In the public mind a school teacher is often thought of as a single woman. We point out that Campbell District has its quota of married teachers supporting a family from teaching income. We feel that a just salary should be a family salary. It is well known that the inability to support a family is a high ranking reason given by men and women for leaving teaching as a career."

TREE PLANTING COMPLETED BY ORCHARD GRANGE

Orchard City Grange 333 completed the main section of its tree project by planting an estimated 115 red flowering eucalyptus trees along Winchester Road March 24.

Grange members received valuable assistance from Max Watson, County Adult Probation Officer, who obtained the trees from the county nursery, and brought 10 men from the County Jail Farm to help with the planting.

Grange Secretary Herbert M. Shadle sent off a letter to Watson April 4 thanking him for his cooperation and praising work of the men from the jail farm.

Shadle predicted that such tree planting projects should prove valuable assets to the county. Grange members will cooperate in caring for the trees by having them watered and fertilized, and kept free of weeds and grass.

The program consisted of numbers from each group and a solo by Janice Mulow of the Girls' Glee Club. Lewis Stommel, instrumental instructor at Jefferson, conducted the orchestra in their final

BLIND PIANIST'S PROGRAM TO INCLUDE COLOR FILM ABOUT ENCHANTED HILLS; PROCEEDS TO CAMP FUND FOR BLIND

Helen Keller once said, "There is no lovelier way to thank God for your sight than by giving a helping hand to someone in the dark," and the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club takes its cue from this statement to sponsor once again a concert by Rose Resnick, blind pianist.

The concert will be presented at the Campbell Union High School auditorium on Thursday, April 12, at 8 p.m. Proceeds of the concert will be contributed toward maintenance and improvement of facilities at Enchanted Hills, the redwood camp for the blind, and to send blind youngsters to camp.

PIANIST AND LECTURER
Miss Resnick, well-known as a pianist and lecturer, is executive director and founder of Recreation for the Blind, a non-profit organization incorporated in 1947 and holding membership in the American Camping Association. A native of New York City, she holds a B. A. degree from Hunter College, and a general teaching certificate and masters degree from the University of California.

She pioneered in the New York Association for the Blind "Light-house" activities. For many summers she attended the Lighthouse Camp as counselor.

She has been advising director for Recreation for the Blind and, due to her magnetic personality and remarkable adjustment to her handicap, has been an inspiration to persons interested in the organization as well as to the children served.

During the concert next Thursday night, Miss Resnick will show a 20-minute color film, "The New Dawn", which portrays life at the Enchanted Hills camp. The camp is a permanent, year-round camp and resort for the physically blind and partially blind. It is located on Mount Veeder Road, 11 miles northwest of Napa. It has tent areas, a lodge with large fireplace, workshop for hobbies, outdoor theater under the redwoods, filtered swimming pool, a lake for boating, stream for fishing and trails for hiking.

Summer sessions provide a complete camp program including first aid and accident prevention, nature study, folk dancing and camp fires. Many games, such as baseball, are specially adapted for enjoyment by the blind. It is hoped that here, in beautiful and healthful surroundings, in an atmosphere of play and understanding, the blind will find enrichment of mind, health and spirit.

The activities director is Miss Nina Brandt, native of San Francisco, and a registered nurse. She is a graduate of Children's Hospital and specialized in pediatrics with additional work at Stanford. During World War II she was a captain in the Army Nurse Corps. After her discharge from the Army, she joined Miss Resnick in establishment of Recreation for the Blind and directed the first three sessions of the first western camp for blind children.

Recreation for the Blind is supported entirely by contributions. Children are referred to the organization by health officers, eye doctors, social workers and blind schools throughout the state. Those who are accepted are the ones who most need opportunities for self-development and social adjustment.

Admission to the concert will be by donation of 75 cents or more.

The 340-acre Enchanted Hills tract will also be the eventual scene of a research project to develop a farming program for the blind. More than two-thirds of the purchase price has been paid, leaving a deed of trust of $25,000, which the organization is anxious to pay off.

Through such programs as the Rose Resnick concert here next Thursday, the non-profit organization hopes to raise the necessary funds to complete payment of the purchase price.

This is the second such concert sponsored here by the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club. The first proved to be exceptionally entertaining, and featured a program offering a variety of musical enjoyment from popular through classical selections.

Those unable to attend the concert and to make their contributions at that time, may send funds to Recreation for the Blind, Inc., 4050 Geary Boulevard, San Francisco, 18.

The elementary school site is at the west end of Rosemary Lane and the north end of Milton, Carlyn and Llewellyn Avenues, District Superintendent William C. Henley's office announced this week.

The school district is purchasing the acreage from Joseph Veroni for reported price of $28,000. Title change is now being processed.

Henley's office said school architects have been instructed to proceed immediately with plans for a new school building there. Schools on this and the earlier announced Cypress Avenue site have highest priority on the district building program.

Joaquin Payne Named for C of C Post; Board Hits Garbage, Police District Plans

Joaquin J. Payne was nominated for president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce when directors met Monday evening at the Campbell Press office. Others on the nominating committee's slate are Mario Saia for vice-president; L. W. Harmon, Mrs. I. O. McConnell, Byron A. Miller and Harold Estensen, directors.

Nominating committee members were L. E. Means, Saia and G. E. Jeffers. Election ballots will soon be mailed to C of C members.

Plans are being completed for a dinner and installation ceremonies at one of the school cafeterias on May 17.

Directors approved a resolution opposing request of San Jose Brick and Tile Company to allow San Jose Sanitation Service to use its clay pit for fill-and-cover garbage dump. The resolution, which was forwarded to the County Planning Commission and County Board of Supervisors, reads as follows:

HIT GARBAGE PLAN

"BE IT FIRMLY RESOLVED: that the Board of Directors of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce, on behalf of the citizens and residents of the town of Campbell, do hereby object to and protest the establishment, operation and maintenance of a proposed garbage dump on the property of the San Jose Brick and Tile Company, Ltd., south of Fruitdale Avenue, between Meridian Road and the San Jose-Los Gatos Road; that it is the firm belief of this Board of Directors that the establishment, operation and maintenance of the proposed garbage dump will, under the circumstances of the particular case, be detrimental to the health, safety, morals, comfort, convenience and welfare of the people residing or working in the neighborhood of said proposed dump and the town of Campbell; that the establishment, operation and maintenance of a proposed garbage dump will, under the circumstances of the particular case, be detrimental and injurious to property and improvements in the neighborhood of said garbage dump and the town of Campbell."

BAR COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS JUDICIAL COURT DISTRICT FOR LOS GATOS - SARATOGA - CAMPBELL

Recommendations of a committee of the Santa Clara County Bar Association which would place Campbell in a justice court district with Los Gatos and Saratoga, were submitted Tuesday to the County Board of Supervisors.

Under the original lower court reorganization plan proposed by the State Judicial Council, Campbell would have been included in a proposed San Jose-Santa Clara municipal court district.

The county bar committee, headed by Attorney Joseph Bonacina, proposed that most of the present Campbell Township be incorporated into the Los Gatos-Saratoga justice court district which the judicial council recommended. Some doubt still exists over location of the northern boundary line between the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga and San Jose-Santa Clara districts.

During the meeting it was agreed that the Hamilton Avenue line, proposed in the written recommendation, be abandoned and that a new line, north of Hamilton Avenue and at an undetermined point, be selected. Final choice could be Payne Avenue, Williams Road or another east-west line.

Attorney Richard Morton of Campbell, member of the bar committee, said he will confer with Supervisors Earl Campbell and Joseph McKinnon and seek to establish a definite line.

Abandonment of the Hamilton Avenue line, and agreement that the northern boundary must be north of Hamilton Avenue, will materially add to the Campbell jurisdiction, he commented.

Morton said the committee's plan was a compromise all around, but a good, workable plan which meets as many objections and community demands as could possibly be expected and still retain the ultimate aim of the consolidating plan and render the operation of the lower court system more economical.

The committee proposed that, Almaden and Guadalupe, now in San Jose Township, be incorporated in the Los Gatos-Campbell-Saratoga court district.

The plan to consolidate the lower court system in the county differs further from the State Judicial Council plan, in that Sunnyvale would be detached from the San Jose-Santa Clara municipal court district and added to the proposed Palo Alto-Mountain View municipal district; Morgan Hill and Gilroy would be combined into one justice court district with one justice of the peace.

San Jose-Santa Clara district would have three rather than two municipal court judges; Palo Alto municipal court judge would be required to hold sessions at specified intervals in Mountain View and Sunnyvale.

Final plan of the committee must be ready for presentation to the Board of Supervisors on April 23. Campbell Chamber of Commerce earlier passed a resolution urging inclusion of Campbell in a Los Gatos-Saratoga municipal court district, instead of putting Campbell in the San Jose court district.

Chamber president Eugene W. Barnes indicated satisfaction with the bar committee's compromise proposal for a justice court and commented that under this plan Campbell will have a more equal voice in court administration and selection of its officials.

Members of the chamber's police committee reported on their current campaign to sign up more contributing members for the merchant patrol.

Directors went on record opposing a substitute amendment to the state law on establishment of police district which would require signatures of a majority of property owners, constituting better than 50 percent of the assessed valuation, to form such a district. Directors supported the original amendment, as proposed by Charles S. Gubser, Assemblyman, 29th District, which would call for a majority vote of the district electorate. On submission of a petition signed by 50 taxpayers in the proposed district, the County Board of Supervisors would be required to call such an election.

Gubser was notified of the board's action by the following telegram: "Campbell Chamber of Commerce board of directors unanimously recommends that you continue to have enacted into law your original Police District amendment. The present substitute amendment is not satisfactory as it does not call for a direct opinion of voters. Signed, Eugene W. Barnes, president."

Gubser, in a telephone conversation with Chamber President Eugene Barnes just before press time yesterday, said he will endeavor to amend the bill before it goes to the state senate. He proposed that instead of reading "more than 50 percent of the assessed valuation," it state "more than 50 percent of the registered voters."

Second Graders Change To Script

Plans for the changeover from print to script writing for second grade children were worked out at a recent meeting of second grade teachers of the Campbell Union School District.

The change from print to script for second graders at this time of the school year is the usual procedure for the district, Ruth Stuart, curriculum coordinator, reports, and is a practice followed in many other districts. Second graders, by this time, are usually matured enough to make the change.

World Federalism, Officer Election On BPWC Agenda

Dorothy Ellis was elected president of the Campbell Business and Professional Women's Club at its dinner meeting March 28 in the Congregational Church.

Other officers who will be installed with her on May 23 are Helen Atkinson, vice-president; Jane Wade, recording secretary; Mickey Mirassou, corresponding secretary; Aileen Cowdery, financial secretary; Leah Johnson, treasurer; Jean Atkinson, auditor; Edith Anderson, parliamentarian; Cecile Schad, Ellen Lanphear, and Hannah Berglund, directors.

Speaker for the evening was Attorney Kenneth R. MacDougall of Palo Alto, whose subject was World Federalism. At the outset of his address, the attorney stated that he is opposed to World Federalism, but would endeavor to give an unbiased explanation of the movement which favors establishment of a world government.

MacDougall said he does not believe world government is the solution to the present world unrest since its eventual success or failure is uncertain. "We should endeavor to find the answer with the means now at our disposal," he asserted.

Although the talk was long, many members stayed to question him during the open discussion which followed. American Legion Auxiliary members had recessed their own meeting in order to attend the BPWC meeting in a body.

The attorney's wife was one of the several special guests at the gathering.

BPWC members will have a business meeting on April 11.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH HYDE have completed an ideal trip through the southwest, during which they drove 4300 miles and recorded their trip in 185 color pictures. They set off three weeks ago for Death Valley, then traveled on to Hoover Dam, the Grand Canyon, the Navajo Indian reservation at Cameron, Arizona, then to Ash Creek Canyon, known as the "little grand canyon," Phoenix, Tucson, Nogales, into Mexico to Hermosilla and Guaymas, then back to Nogales, Indio, Palm Springs and home.

Mr. Hyde's principal plan was to put his camera to work. The weather was with them all the way and afforded plenty of opportunity for picture taking. They encountered no bad weather during the entire trip. At the Grand Canyon, the air was clear and the day bright, a fine day for the camera, instead of the usual haze in the area. They stopped early enough each day to obtain suitable accommodations, and encountered difficulty here only once. This was at Death Valley where they arrived in the midst of a teachers' convention and had to put up at the junction, 20 miles away. The Hydies made some 50 side trips, making it a practice to inquire at the Chambers of Commerce for information on interesting spots to visit.

Some half of those pictures have been developed to date, and, from these it is evident, that Mr. and Mrs. Hyde and their films will be on demand at local gatherings here for some time to come.

MRS. A. H. SWANSON has been the guest of honor at recent shower events. Among them was the stork shower given by MRS. JOHN CRAWFORD of 736 Audrey Avenue. Also, Mrs. Swanson's stepmother, MRS. WARD PAULLUS of Orland organized a stork shower by mail. The honoree's aunts in Washington, Idaho, Oregon, and California, mailed the gifts to Mrs. Paullus who brought them to her daughter's home in Campbell.

ERMGARDT H. STENGEL and CONRAD JAURIGUL, both of Campbell, were married in a civil ceremony performed Sunday, April 1 by Justice of the Peace Martin S. Walsh at his home, 65 Budd Avenue. The couple were attended by Curtiss Langford and Mrs. Walsh.

MR. AND MRS. HARRISON P. WILKINS of Puyallup, Washington, will arrive today for a visit with MRS. EDNA F. SMITH. Mrs. Wilkins was the sister of the late Mr. Smith. The Wilkinses were in San Francisco this week visiting Mrs. Smith's son-in-law and daughter, MR. AND MRS. WALTER E. KROHN.

Local Cinder Squad Meets Gilroy Today; Kaeding Sets School Record In Hurdles

Showing surprising over-all strength in its season opener last week, the Campbell high school track and field team enters into SCVAL competition today as it travels to Gilroy to meet the Mustangs in a dual meet.

Coach Junior Morgan's squad combined totals with Fremont high last Friday in dropping a seventy-seven and two-thirds to forty two and one-third meet to the powerful San Jose State College Frosh.

The locals took three first places as Howard Kaeding copped both hurdles events and Dennis Dunne won the broad jump.

Kaeding tied a Valley record and set a school record by clearing the 120-yard highs in 15.6. The old Buc mark was set in 1933 by Lorey Pierce. Kaeding also turned in a fair time of 18.5 in the 160-yard low hurdles.

With Charlie McBain, defending SCVAL low barrier champ, back in fine form, Morgan has two of the best hurdlers in local prep circles.

McBain ran unattached in the Spartan Frosh-San Jose high schools meet this week and captured his specialty, the 180-yard hurdle, in the good time of 21.8. Dunne, member of the B squad, jumped 18'-10" in taking the event at Spartan field.

Another respectable early season time turned in by a Buc trackman was Dan Livey's 52.3 in the 440-yard race. It earned him a second behind State's Terry Moss who did 51.5.

Sonny Musladin and Dunne came in second and third respectively in the 100-yard dash. Saul Estrada finished second in the pole vault behind the 13-foot mark cleared by State's Balfau. Additional points were picked up by the Buc's Roseme and Criste who took thirds in the broad jump and high jump, respectively.

Softball Meeting Set For Tuesday

An open meeting for everyone interested in playing softball in the Campbell Softball League will be held Tuesday, April 10, at the Campbell Grammar School cafeteria at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Junior Morgan, one of the league's commissioners, said that plans will be discussed concerning the A, B, and Junior divisions.

Play will start in the senior divisions April 15. Two games will be played nightly, excluding Saturday and Sunday.

Any boy who will be 17 years of age before May 15 will be ineligible to compete in the junior circuit, Morgan said.

Buccaneer Nine Faces SJS Frosh

Hoping to shake a bad case of ennui, Campbell high's baseball nine faces the slugging San Jose State Frosh team Tuesday afternoon on the latter's home diamond.

The majority if not all, of Buc games will be played away this season due to the building program in progress. The present field is littered with material as workers are busy on the nearby girls' new gym and swimming pool.

The new diamond, situated behind the bus garages, is slowly taking shape with much of the grading and leveling completed.

There is a strong possibility Tuesday that the Coach George Miskulin's crew will face Johnny Oldham, former All-SCVAL chucker from Campbell.

In a Valley contest, the local nine dropped a 7 to 5 game to Fremont high as all but one Indian run resulted through the Buc's generosity afield. As they have done in most of their other games, Campbell batters outthrew their rivals, seven to five, but miscues proved too much for local pitchers to overcome.

were totaled, unofficial results found the locals amassing eight more points than their league rivals.

Campbell Hardware Captures Cage Title By Edging Maderis In Overtime, 44-42

Campbell Hardware won the championship of the B league in the local Senior Basketball league Tuesday night by copping an overtime thriller from Maderis Market, 44 to 42, at the high school gym.

It was Dan Estrada, lanky forward, who played hero for the loop winners. He tied the score in regulation play with two seconds to go by stealing the ball and going in for a lay in.

Then in the extra session he recovered a loose ball in front of his basket and sunk a five-foot jump shot as the scoreboard showed only 10 seconds left.

The game was the third and final contest of a special play-off between the two clubs. The marketmen won the second-half title while Campbell took opening half honors. In the first playoff tilt the hardwaremen won a close 43-34 battle. Maderis retaliated with a 42-37 victory last week.

Tuesday's affair started with Maderis dominating play. In fact, it wasn't until late in the fourth period that Campbell tied the score for the first time.

Limiting the champs to only four buckets in the opening half, Maderis pulled away to 21-13 lead at intermission time. They maintained a 31-27 margin entering the final quarter. But a field goal by Hal Layman knotted the game for the pots-and-pans crew.

The regulation game ended in a 40-40 deadlock.

In the overtime stanza, Campbell tallied first as Estrada sunk a set shot from the corner. Bob Bennett evened the count by netting a 15-footer from near the key.

Both teams played cautious ball, waiting for the opportune break. With about 20 seconds remaining, the CH five came down court and took two shots at the basket. Both missed and in the ensuing scramble Estrada picked up the loose ball and sank the winning marker.

Before Maderis could get the ball into serious contention the final buzzer sounded.

High-point honors for the night were shared by two Maderis cagers, Ron Wyrch and Bennett, each with 12 points.

Buzz Freitas, Campbell guard, hit for 11 markers while Estrada tallied nine points, two baskets in the final hectic period and two in overtime play.

PSYCHOLOGICAL BACKFIRE?
... It is often said that a sign of a good student is the amount of teaching and instruction he attains and maintains, receives and digests from his professors and teachers while in school, be it the grammar or college building.

If that holds any water around Campbell High, Junior Morgan, Buc track coach, has learned his lessons well and should act as an adept middle man in dishing out track and field lore. We got that impression during our weekly stroll around the Bucville campus, particularly the athletic plant.

Morgan was graduated from San Jose State College where among several sports he ran for Coach Bud Winter's cinder squad. That in itself is not startling for many a better trackman has cavorted for the shrewd Spartan mentor.

But Winter instigated a plan, a plot would be more appropriate, to bolster team spirit and accentuate a competitive drive that prevailed even during practice sessions.

This bit of intrigue, now adopted by Morgan, is to present a cake (yep, that post-dinner delicacy) every time an athlete bettered an individual mark in his specialty.

On the local cinder oval the situation is slightly altered. Morgan posted individual times and distances above the present capabilities of each athlete. When a student breaks that assigned mark, he is awarded a frostie (the big 10c variety) and his mark is lowered accordingly. Thus every runner and field man, from the D's up to the varsity, is forever competing against himself and the clock with the result being many faster times, an extremely high spirit, and a feeling of "I belong on the team" evident.

That the stimulating scheme is successful is evident in the number of "donations" Morgan had to contribute via his own wallet.

Since Monday, the birthday of what probably be a Buc tradition from now on, the amiable coach has been touched for 11 frosties and one "little" cake. It was won by Howard Kaeding, who set a new school record in the 120-high hurdles last week.

Under Morgan's set-up, a "big" cake will be given to those who establish a new SCVAL mark. Since Kaeding also tied the Valley hurdle mark, we believe he is entitled to at least the icing from a bigger cake. It isn't every day a record is set, let alone equalled.

All the credit does not belong to Morgan. His wife has agreed to bake all the cakes needed to satisfy the Buc speedsters.

If some of that Campbell potential explodes later in the season, the Morgan pair may rue the day Junior decided to ape his Spartan coach.

Already the Buc boss is surprised at the frequency of times it is forced to cough up. But he feels it is worth it. "Through this system of psychological aids the boys stimulate themselves and others during practice and the entire competitive urge prevails throughout the week," he said. "The more often the boys run in an effort to better their marks, the better their condition, mentally and physically."

SPORT SHORTS ... The Buc Award Committee will meet for the third time Friday in an attempt to rewrite the present award ordinance in force at the school. Twelve student athletes, two from each sport, are working under faculty supervision ... WANTED. Some good clay to recover the whereabout of the gooey stuff at a reasonable price should contact one of the local softball commissioners, NEIL ROYER, FRED JONES, TONY BAKICH, or JUNIOR MORGAN ... The diamond has plenty of loam already, but the clay will put the field in much better shape ... JOHN OLDFHAM, erstwhile chucker for Campbell high and now top hurler for the SJS Frosh, tossed a neat one-hitter against Monterey high last week ... Oldham also collected three hits in the 21-0 rout ... DON LACLERGUE, physical education major at State now student teaching at the local high school, is just as proficient with the textbooks as he is in sports ... He won top scholastic honors last quarter with an average of 2.8, not bad when 3.0 means straight A's. LaClergue also boxed on the Spartan team for two years. He amassed a record of six wins as against two losses ... NOTICE TO CAGERS—There will be no basketball playing these Tuesday nights as announced by BERT ROBINSON earlier this month. Instead of having the gym available to hardwood enthusiasts, the Adult Recreation program has allocated the evening and gym to folk dancing ... fair enough, the young 'uns had their share of the gym for many nights as basketball reigned in three leagues ... now let us older folks enjoy ourselves.

Comprehensive Exposition of Classical Music Being Presented by Adolph Baller in Lectures

(By Peter Call, author-lecturer, formerly moderator of San Francisco's Town Hall and ghost-writer of the autobiography of the late Dr. Alfred Hertz, Metropolitan Opera and San Francisco Symphony Orchestra conductor, entitled, "I Faced The Music." Mr. Call is currently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve F. Shaffer at their Ranch 'T'ai Shan, where he has just finished writing a book, "Springtime For Vicki", with the Saratoga-Los Gatos area as the locale.)

If you, the discerning and weekly awaiting reader of the Saratoga Observer failed within the past week to avail yourself of the first of a series of Saratoga events to extend over a period of three consecutive Friday afternoons at Montalvo, then let our Observer now serve you well—to the extent that you will reach for your telephone, call Mrs. Thomas C. Haire, El Gato 4-3674 and make reservations for the next two events. Don't bother, however, if you hate music; or liking it don't care to know why you do; or having no interest in our community's cultural development, you do not care what becomes of Montalvo which was willed to you by the late Senator James A. Phelan for a community art center.

Pursuant to this writer's pretensions as music, literature, and art critic he frequently finds himself enslaved to a sense of kindly consideration, obligation, and exploitation toward artists, events, or enterprises. Early in his own professional career he discovered that a critical analysis of a cultural product is entirely a matter of personal taste—even though it might be an educated taste; as with olives, much or a smidgen of garlic . . . or, say—truffles. Contrary opinion by other critics (not to mention the almost infallible Public, bless them) often reveals an astonishing disagreement; founded upon exactly the same ingredients, taste out of knowledge, experience, and resultant reasoning. This apologetic, so to speak, is offered by this writer because he herewith gives a RAVE NOTICE to a current event that in his opinion presents a rare opportunity for both entertainment and instruction.

Adolph Baller, one of the incomparables in the world of pianoforte and of whom we of this community are heir by reason of the social-political laceration of Europe, is displaying an extraordinary ability in addition to his consummate musicianship to explain music for its greater enjoyment. In a course of three lecture-recitals he is giving a most comprehensive exposition of the component parts of classical music, how it is created out of separate tonal ideas and accepted usages into a solid melodic and harmonic whole. In spite of such surgical dissection and diagnosis last Friday's event was notably devoid of the usual stuffiness, snobbery and dull pedagogy that one now learns need not characterize a music appreciation lecture—due, of course, to Mr. Baller's natural unaffected simplicity and his own first conviction that music can be understood as well as merely heard emotionally.

ARTIST-TECHNICIAN

The exposition of the sonata and the fugue, out of which the more elaborate music has been developed, constituted the first of these lectures and was magnificently enhanced by renditions of sonatas by Haydn, Mozart and Beethoven and a Bach fugue. Unforgettable was an almost overwhelming delivery of Beethoven's Sonata, Opus 110 in which Mr. Baller rose, perhaps, to his greatest stature as artist and technician.

Friday afternoon, April 6, the subject for analysis with piano demonstration will be "Variations on a Theme"—that familiar form employed for concerto and imposing pianoforte. Then, on April 13, assisted by one of his artist-pupils, Miss Carol Noble, who is already known to the concert stage, Mr. Baller will unravel the intricacies of symphony.

Friends of Montalvo present this exceptional course in music elucidation to raise some much needed funds to secure and to develop in Saratoga the Montalvo Foundation which could easily become one of the great art and music centers of the world. It was willed to us—a princely legacy.

Single tickets for the two final lectures will be available at the door of Montalvo. The program will begin at 2 p.m.

Measles, Scarlet Fever

Five cases of measles, one of German measles and one of scarlet fever were reported in Campbell for the week ending March 31, according to the County Health Department.

Irate Parents Seek Gunmen Who Shoots Dogs

The lead bullet which a dog out in the San Tomas area is carrying in his lungs may provide the necessary evidence to convict a wanted gun owner whose irresponsibility and heartlessness has alarmed homeowners in the area.

Muggs is the dog's name. The four-year-old beagle, family pet of the Del Lucots, 684 Lucot Way, is only one of the dogs believed to be the target of the gunman. Other dogs in the area have just disappeared. Another dog was shot in the jaw this week.

Not only the family pets, but the children, even adults, may be hit by the person who is doing the shooting, said Lucot. Muggs has been shot before. Two years ago a bullet went through him and broke a shoulder bone. The family did not know what was wrong with the dog. He looked sick, could barely stand. They found a small, bloody hole near his shoulder and took him to the veterinarian, who reported the dog had been shot about 24 hours before the examination. Muggs lived through that one.

A month ago, the Lucots believe someone scattered poison in the area. Muggs became violently ill. He vomited repeatedly, and whatever had been in his stomach killed the lawn where he had been ill.

Just before Easter, Muggs was shot again. This time the bullet stayed in his body, in his lungs. Barring complications, says the veterinarian, he will recover, but the risk of operating to remove the bullet is too great. The lung might collapse. If Muggs should die, then the bullet will be given a ballistics check, and the gun which shot the bullet will be traced.

Chances are that the gun owner lives not far away, for Muggs is never away from home more than half an hour in the morning and again at night when the Lucots let him out to exercise. The rest of the time the Lucots keep him in their fenced back yard.

The Lucots find it difficult to believe that there is some person who goes about shooting dogs at random. Lucot said it is possible that the person has not matured mentally, that he feels no shame or responsibility for his acts. If the gun owner is such, then he may be equally as careless with human life. About the time Muggs was first shot, in July, 1949, residents frequently heard shots and bullets often whizzed over their heads. They thought the gunmen were "just kids." A bullet broke a window of the house next door to the Lucots.

There are about 25 children living in the Lucots' block. The question the homeowners are asking themselves is, "Who is doing the shooting and does he shoot dogs carelessly, through lack of ability to use a gun or does he shoot them intentionally?" As the situation rests now, they must sit and wait to learn which pet, or whose child, will be the next victim, but irate parents are on the alert to discover the identity of the person responsible for the shooting.

HOMER HYDE HEADS ROTARY

Homer Hyde was elected president of Campbell Rotary Club at the weekly luncheon meeting Monday. Joaquin Payne was elected vice-president; L. W. Harmon, treasurer; Hans Hansell and I. O. McConnell, directors.

Harry G. Mitchell, a director of the Santa Clara Valley Water Conservation district, gave a talk on the history of the district and water problems in the area.

He described building of the district's dams, including Coyote, Stevens Creek, Almaden and others, and announced that Anderson dam is nearly complete and has considerable water stored behind it.

He predicted that building of the Lexington dam on Los Gatos Creek will be a comparatively simple project from the construction standpoint, and said completion day would probably be in the summer of '52. Main problem at this site is rerouting of the state highway and of gaining access to the site.

Mitchell outlined functions of the district, and told Rotarians its activities are financed by tax income.

CAMBRIAN AREA AIDS RED CROSS FUND DRIVE

Report from the Cambrian district, submitted by Mrs. James D. Edgmon, sectional chairman, helped boost returns in the Campbell Red Cross fund drive to $3,750 this week.

Chairman Joseph Feit said Mrs. Edgmon's report was especially noteworthy because the Cambrian area's total contribution was considerably more than last year. He expressed appreciation for efforts of Mrs. Edgmon, and her co-workers, and to all in the Cambrian area for their enthusiastic response.

"There is still quite a way to go to reach our goal of $4,000," he commented, "and there are only a few outstanding reports. We hope those workers will have completed their canvassing by the end of the week."

"A few streets in the Campbell area have not been canvassed because we were not able to obtain workers to cover them. We wish that people in those areas would assist us by either mailing in their donations to Mr. Guy E. Farley, 251 E. Campbell Avenue, or stopping by with their contributions sometime when they are in the area."

School Officials Attend Confab On Annexation Bills

Anderson, E. A. Merrill, Edwin C. Van de Mark, all trustees and District Superintendent William C. Henley.

Garbage Question Under Submission

The controversial fill-and-cover garbage plan for the clay pit of San Jose Brick and Tile Co., Ltd., was taken under 30-day submission by county planning Commission Wednesday afternoon. Final decision will be given May 2.

At the hearing, attended by over 250 citizens of the Fruitdale Avenue area, who were represented by Attorney Richard W. Morton of Campbell, proponents endeavored to show that the garbage dump plan would be beneficial to the neighborhood, and the system a sanitary one.

Morton, on the other hand, suggested that economic considerations are involved, since the Fruitdale Avenue site is considerably closer to the garbage company operations than is the Alviso dump.

He pointed out possibility of a methane gas explosion at or near such a dump, and added that since each day's dumping would be covered, the garbage would lie uncovered for about five hours each day during dumping operations. He presented witnesses, bankers and real estate men, who predicted a drop in real estate values in the area should the dump be permitted, and pointed out that the County Hospital and site of the proposed junior college are within a half mile of the dump site.

MRS. LOWELL BENSON of Campbell, and her mother, MRS. HILDA MUNSON of Fresno, have arrived in Stockholm, Sweden, for a three-months' visit with relatives of Mrs. Munson.

Despite Overpopulation, War Damage, Japan Recovers, Says Local Nurseryman

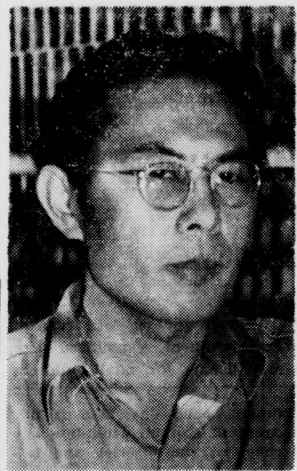

Only practical solution to Japan's over-population problem is emigration, Bill Noda, Campbell nurseryman who recently returned from an extended stay in the Japanese islands, asserted in a recent interview with the Campbell Press. There is not enough food production or land to meet the needs of the native Japanese as well as the thousands who have been sent back there from China, Manchuria and other adopted countries during and after World War II.

Noda, an American-Japanese, said the Japanese hope for an early peace treaty with this country. After such a treaty has been ratified, there will be thousands, he predicted, who will migrate to China, Brazil, the South Seas. Brightest hope of many is the United States, which they regard as "one of the most progressive countries in the world. They know more about this country than I do. They asked me so many questions that I could not answer about materials, products, developments that I had never heard of."

This was Noda's fourth trip back to Japan. During his two months' visit there, he stayed with relatives in Kyushu Islands and Tokyo.

"It was lucky that I did not go back last year as I had planned," he commented. "At that time there was no food for the foreigners. Everything was issued by the government."

the rice and all things for daily needs. Eight months ago the picture changed. The United States began sending in great amounts of foodstuffs and American-made goods.

"Now, with money, you can buy anything. Prices are high, and there is not much money. There is what amounts to inflation, with the exchange at 360 yen to the dollar."

FOOD PROBLEM
"Food is the big question," said Noda. "There are so many people. To walk three blocks in Tokyo takes 30 minutes, the streets are so crowded with people." There must be emigration to create an equitable ratio between food production and population. "The United States cannot go on supporting them forever."

Noda estimated that at least half the goods offered in Japanese stores are U.S.-made—chocolate, gum, 'cokes', gloves. "U.S. products are believed to be better, and the people want to buy them even though they may be high priced."

Asked if the Japanese really go for chewing gum and cokes, Noda laughed, then commented that the whole system seems to be changed. The people seem to like the United States and desire to emulate the habits of its people.

JAPAN DEMOCRATIC

"They seem to be more democratic even than here. The police carry pistols instead of the swords they once wore. They are Americanized now, and polite. Even the immigration officials, who used to be so rude, are polite. If they are sassy, they can be reported to a superior and suspended or fired."

Turning again to the food problem, Noda was asked if all arable land in the islands is now being used to produce foods. Each family, he said, is limited to about five acres of rice fields. There is no limit for orchards, nor is cultivation in the mountains restricted to small acreage holdings, but few of the citizens desire large land holdings, since high taxes discourage extensive ownership.

The people are really working to rehabilitate themselves and reconstruct their cities, he went on. Those in the country suffered far less than the city dwellers. Few large buildings are left in the large cities of Kobe, Osaka, Nagoya, Hiroshima and Nagasaki, the latter two devastated by atom bombs. In these cities, the majority of the people live and work in military barracks which have been erected pending reconstruction of the urban areas.

Cities near Hiroshima look much worse than the Hiroshima, itself, "probably because they (the U.S. occupation) are sorry for having ruined it and are trying to build it up again."

SHIP BUILDING

Already, the Japanese are making large scale advances toward eventual self-sufficiency. One of Noda's fellow passengers on the return trip to the United States was a man from Osaka who told him that many ships are being built there to fill U.S. and British orders for merchant vessels.

As for the Korean conflict, "the Japanese people seem to have had enough of war. They seldom think or speak about the war. In the papers there are only a few lines occasionally about Korea. Perhaps some of the news is censored, but the people don't like to read much about the war in the papers."

The attitude toward the U.S. is "good." They want the United States soldiers to stay in Japan until everything is settled. Many Japanese girls are married to colored American soldiers.

"Because of United States help, the country has made much progress in the past five years."

"There is little comment on the Reds. Apparently there are a few Reds in Japan, but they are well controlled. They are not discussed."

Noda, who made the round trip aboard the liners Presidents Wilson and Cleveland, is a partner with Dan Rose in the Campbell Nursery, corner of Winchester Road and Latimer Avenue. The business was started in October, 1949.

A native of Santa Clara, Noda attended San Jose high school. He also attended high school and a university in Japan. During his four trips to Japan he has lived there a total of eight years.

INTERNEED
At the outbreak of World War II, he was interned in Honolulu.

"But I do not hold it against them, even though I am an American citizen." The nurseryman explained that security officers probably felt justified in intern him because he had just returned from Japan on the last ship before the war, and he was studying radio. At the time he was employed in a Chinese market.

Although not all Japanese were interned, he said, some 3000 were. "The first two or three months were pretty bad, but things improved after that. Supplies began coming in." Noda said he never was given a satisfactory explanation as to why he was interned.

Most of the internees were held for two years. Noda, released after a year and a half, went back to work in the Chinese market, where the owner, who had been short-handed, welcomed him.

After 11 years in Honolulu, he moved back to the United States four years ago. "You know," he said, "during those 11 years before I came back, everything seemed to go wrong. I had nearly all the hard luck of my life in that time."

The nurseryman said he may take another trip back to Japan later, but just now he has no plans. "One thing I know," he said, "When I landed in San Francisco the other day, I was really glad to be back. I think I felt that I had been staying in another country, and that it was not home."

Potluck Supper Of PTA Proves Big Success

More than 200 persons attended the potluck dinner given recently by the San Tomas Parent-Teacher Association at the Campbell Grammar School. After the dinner, those present adjourned to the auditorium where a delightful and entertaining program was presented by the faculty, with Mrs. Leora Emig as emcee.

The school faculty, calling itself the "Cackle Club of San Tomas," presented "Evening by the Moonlight" and "When You Were a Tulip," as a chorus, accompanied by Mrs. Patricia Freeman at the piano. The Claire McNeil Sisters, Mrs. Jacqueline Parton and Mrs. Patricia, did a soft shoe routine to the tune of "East Side, West Side." A clever rendition of the "Mocking Bird Hill" song was given by "Perry Como William Shuey Jr.," principal, and the "Three Fontaine Sisters," Pauline McKinney, Jackie Parton and June Jorgenson. Other participants in the skit were Ray Wilson, Esther Fore, Patricia Freeman and Leora Emig.

Mrs. Raymond Martin welcomed the fathers to the gathering, after which there was a brief business meeting in the kindergarten room. The group discussed needs of the community program and progress made at San Tomas

Two smart gals! Both cook on automatic gas ranges!

Bought my range a while ago. Pampered it because I know... Proper care (Rule Number One) Makes it last for years to come.

Range I used was pretty bad. Went to see what Dealer had. Found a dandy... lucky day! Now I cook the modern way.

Moral here is pretty clear Any model... any year Give your gas range proper care... It will wear and wear and wear.

It's smart to cook with an automatic gas range. Smart because gas is quick, clean, thrifty and steady. It makes cooking pleasant, easy, successful. If you have a modern gas range take good care of it. If you do not have one, investigate the possibility of buying one. See your dealer soon!

Mrs. W. H. Scott, second vice-president, conducted a short business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Laurence J. Hill.

Those in charge of arrangements for the affair were: Mesdames Vernon Suess, chairman; G. E. Jeffers, J. C. Agostinho, L. E. Hendricks, O. C. Jensen, J. B. Arends Jr., and Ida C. Price.

It was announced that the annual meeting of the club will be on April 16.

The group completed the afternoon with a tour of the Rosicrucian Planetarium and Museum.

Orchard Grange Hears Talk On Liquor Problem

An amusing portrayal of old fashioned American customs, particularly square dancing, was given in the book review presented by Mrs. Byron Moore of San Jose at the Orchard City Grange meeting March 27. She was introduced by Lecturer A. J. Emery. The book also had interesting comments on the awkward efforts so often produced by a "modern" in negotiating the square dance movements.

Mrs. Josephine Biller was elected and installed as Goddess Pomona of the Grange.

Under public affairs, Judge Martin S. Walsh reviewed an article in the magazine "Future". The article quoted Arthur Samish "who is reputed to have more power than the California Legislature", and is also a lobbyist for the liquor interests, according to the Grange report. Samish states, according to Walsh, that $940,000 comes from beer alone, and he also said the taxes benefit the "little taxpayer". Samish did not say anything on the other side of the ledger, Walsh pointed out—how much it costs to put up with the evils of the nation's skid rows.

Contrary to the popular view in prohibition days that liquor consumption would taper off when it was freely available, the consumption has increased. In 1940, said Walsh, 62 percent of the men in this country drank. In 1946 the figure rose to 82 percent. In 1940, he added, 42 percent of the women drank. Their number increased to 70 percent in 1946. The women are catching up with the men, commented Walsh. It takes 10 years to make a chronic alcoholic out of a man, one year for a woman. One out of every 20 drinkers becomes a chronic alcoholic. The cost of caring for the alcoholics is about $296,000,000 a year.

Merle Gardner, speaking on agriculture, reported the walnut growers collected 80 percent of their crop proceeds before last Christmas.

HIGHWAY REPORT

Mark Purmort announced that 28 highway traffic directional signs for Campbell have been allotted by the State Highway Commission. The Casey Road curve at the lumber yard is to be straightened, he said, and Hamilton Avenue is to be widened between Meridian Road and San Jose-Los Gatos Road. Lights will soon be installed along the east side of Winchester Road near the schools, he stated. A smooth pedestrian crossing will be established at the railroad crossing on Campbell Avenue. There will be no money to widen the 101 highway from San Jose to Gilroy this year.

Grange members passed a resolution supporting Assembly Bill 2498 giving the water conservation districts the same right of eminent domain as irrigation districts, in order to

God's Judgments Will Be Topic Of Baptist Service

"The Judgments of God" has been chosen as the topic for the evangelistic Sunday evening service at 7:30 o'clock in the Campbell Baptist Church, 115 Sunny-side Ave., as announced by the pastor, the Rev. Lyle L. Cushman. Singing, testimony and bible exposition mark the evening hour.

In the morning worship service at 11 a.m., "Obedient Children" has been chosen as the topic. The choir will present special music.

Sunday Bible School meets at 9:45 a.m. with classes for all ages. Two adult Bible classes are provided for the parents.

Youth Fellowship meets Sunday at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday Bible study and prayer hour at 7:45 p.m.

Fourth Graders' Spelling Bee

Fourth grade classes of Campbell School District are now selecting their representatives for the District Spelling Bee to be held in Campbell Grammar School auditorium during Public Schools Week. In preliminary contests each of the district's seven classes is selecting four spellers. The 28 finalists will compete for awards at a contest set for 9:30 a.m., April 27 in the grammar school auditorium. Three parents of fourth graders will judge the contest.

Plans for the contest were worked out at a recent fourth grade district teachers meeting under chairmanship of Curriculum Coordinator Ruth Stuart. Mrs. Stuart said the aim of the bee is to stimulate interest in spelling and create a spelling consciousness among the children.

condemn private property and public utility property. Particular reference was made to efforts to clear the way for construction of Lexington Dam by establishing an agreement with San Jose Water Works whose facilities obstruct the project.

Almaden Grange will have a card party April 7. On the same date there will be meetings of the County Grange Youth and Pomona at Cupertino. On March 31 Orchard City Grange will have a card party in the Campbell IOOF Hall.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

In the banquet hall special honor was accorded all those members having birthdays in the first quarter of the year. Small birthday cakes with candles were served the honorees. David Rutherford, accompanied by Virginia Rutherford, sang "Memories" and "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland." An impromptu quartet sang old time numbers to close the program. Refreshment committee members were Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Simpson and Mrs. Anna Dolfin.

San Tomas PTA Conducts Series On Arithmetic

Mrs. Helen Peterson, special teacher for the Campbell School District, explained fundamentals of arithmetic as the subject is taught today, when she addressed the San Tomas Parent-Teacher Association March 15.

"Arithmetic is taught to be meaningful, and not mechanical as it has been taught in the past," she said. As early as the primary grades arithmetic is used through the numbers on the clock and the calendar.

Mrs. Jacqueline Parton, second grade teacher, and a group of her pupils gave an entertaining illustration of number combinations very appropriately illustrated by Peter Rabbit and Easter eggs to fill his basket. Number combinations are an introduction to formal arithmetic in the second grade.

Mrs. Leora Emig, fourth grade teacher, explained how subtraction is taught, illustrating how ones, tens and hundreds are expressed in teaching the pupils subtraction.

NEW OFFICERS

Mrs. Raymond Martin led the group in the pledge of allegiance, and gave the inspirational. She also read a report from Mrs. Ethyl McCoy, chairman of the nominating committee, proposing the following as nominees for office during the coming year: Mrs. James Barnett, president; Mrs. A. H. Raymond, first vice-president; Mrs. C. A. Brott, second vice-president; Mrs. Walter O. Thurber, secretary; Mrs. Esther Hanson, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Martin, parliamentarian; Mrs. Christine Ferrell, historian, and Principal William Shuey Jr., auditor.

The new officers and chairmen will be installed at the next PTA meeting, April 19, at which time there will be an informal tea for the faculty.

Mrs. Chester Brott was hostess. Mrs. Charles Long, assisted by sixth grade mothers, served refreshments.

A continuation of the arithmetic study will take place at the school on Thursday evening, March 29, at 7:30 o'clock. All persons interested in joining this evening study group may attend.

Measles Hit Campbell

Ten cases of measles were reported in Campbell for the week ending March 24, according to the county health department. Total measles tally for the week in this county was 72, plus four cases of German measles.

P. O. Discontinuing Postal Note Sales

Campbell Post Office discontinued sale of postal notes beginning Saturday, March 31. Postmaster Ira Grim has announced. The U. S. Post Office will issue a revised money order form beginning July 31, which will replace present money orders and postal notes, he stated.

Quality Production, Advertising Boost Hunt's Earnings, Says Hansell

Quality of its products and consistent advertising have boosted Hunt Food, Inc., sales from less than ten million dollars in 1942 to sixty million dollars in 1950, Alvin Hansell, manager of the Campbell plant of Hunt Foods, told local Kiwanians last Tuesday.

Hansell, speaking at the club's weekly luncheon meeting, described

LOCAL UNIT AIDS MILLION MEMBER GRANGE DRIVE

Members of Orchard City Grange have pledged their full support and active participation in the Albert S. Goss Membership Memorial at a meeting held March 27, 1951, it was announced here by George Shattuck, master.

"Our goal is a million member grange—a living tribute to the courageous leadership and high purposes of our late national master, Albert S. Goss," Shattuck said. "It is of further significance that the grange is extending invitations for membership to worthy rural families at a time when there is an ever increasing need for a rededication to the principles of individual integrity and fair dealings among men at home and throughout the world."

Shattuck called attention to the eight-point grange program for national defense based upon these principles and directed toward fairness of sacrifice and the full contribution of individual productivity on the part of all.

"Never before has there been a greater need for rural families to unite and exert their influence in community and nation, as they undertake the task of increasing the output of most crops at a time when production problems such as manpower, machinery, fertilizers, insecticides, and the like are increasing," Shattuck said.

Reviewing the many advantages of grange membership Shattuck asserted that the grange is the only organization in which the whole farm family can participate in both business and social functions. The grange is the only organization in which policies originate at the community level; then to be considered by county, state, and finally on matters of national importance by the national grange, he concluded.

the Hunt production system which has been standardized for the corporation's 22 plants. "Growth of the Hunt Red Label reflects public approval of Hunt quality and the aggressive promotion of the label through consistent advertising," he stated.

As a result of aggressive promotions of quality products through magazine, television and book match advertising, Hunt is now first in production and sales of tomato sauce, second in production and sales of canned peaches, and third in production and sales of tomato catsup, the plant manager continued.

"Hunt is the only food processor with almost all of its tin and glass containers made on its own properties," he stated, in enlarging upon Hunt activities. Hunt has processing plants on the Pacific Coast, in the midwest and east, producing a complete line of fruits, vegetables and tomato products.

Hansell also outlined history of the Campbell plant, from the time when it was established by Ainsley on a small basis back in the 1880's, through its sale to Drown in 1934, and its purchase by Hunt's in 1948.

Canning of fruit cocktail in this country was originated in Campbell at the local plant.

The speaker was introduced by Postmaster Ira Grim, chairman of the day.

At next week's Kiwanis meeting, the speaker will be Dr. Nan Allen from the County School Superintendent's office. She will speak on "Education of the Mentally Normal But Physically Retarded". Dr. Allen is a member of the Crippled Children's Society of Santa Clara County and is interested in development of the society's proposed Sheltered Workshop to provide vocational training for young adults with physical handicaps. She is also active in work at the Chandler Tripp School. William C. Henley will be the program chairman.

Guard Your Family STRIKE BACK!

GIVE to Conquer Cancer

IF SOMEONE IN YOUR FAMILY HAD CANCER, you would do anything . . . everything that would help. And today there is so much that you can do to help.

We need more research, more life-saving education, more training for scientists and physicians, more equipment, more services for those already stricken with the disease. We all must help. Any contribution is welcome, but the fight against this major threat deserves major support: dollars—tens—twenties—hundreds of dollars. Will you help?
